MARCH 2009

Note from Shelia...

Last night I walked outside to say goodnight to the stars and peeking around the corner of my house was a huge bright moon. The rays were so clear that they appeared to touch the ground in brilliant streamers of gold.

At that moment, I was taken back by the beauty and magnificence of nature. From deep within my core a sound cried out to embrace the knowing that nature teaches.

My first thought was the purple desert daisies in my yard that open with the sun and close at dusk. There is never a question if they will open and close. They just do! It is the way of purple desert daisies.

Someone I know owns two ancient tortoises. I know little to nothing about tortoises. She told me that each year when they come out of hibernation it means the weather would stay warm. They don't come out at the same time each year. Last year it was the end of March and this year the end of February. They wake up within a day of each other. It is mid March and our weather has stayed warm and beautiful. How do they know the weather will stay warm? It is just the way of ancient tortoises.

My dog, Buddy, is shedding his fur in handfuls at this time. To my knowledge, he doesn't consciously tell his hair to thin for the warm weather and he is not stressing over the change to his coat. It is just the way of thick haired dogs.

There are millions of examples that tell us that nature, in all forms, lives in the present moment allowing life to BE. What would happen if the human species decided to waken the innate wisdom that is available from the inside out? Would we be more patient knowing that, after taking action, our desires would come when the energy was right and not a minute before? Would we pay more attention to the heart feelings that guide us to our next great moment? Would this kind of trust lead to healthier stronger minds and bodies? Is it possible for us to really 'let go and let God'?

I have always felt that I do a pretty good job of being present and living in the moment. However, I have to admit that lately my 'monkey mind chatter' has been having a party because of business and money worries. My mood and energy has been low and I hear myself complaining more and more. A very special friend of mine reminded me to stop and look in the mirror to recognize that I am perfect just the way I am and to love myself unconditionally. It wasn't easy to admit to myself in that mirror that I was okay. A part of me wanted to argue with 'yes buts' and the other part cried. When my friend told me that he believed in me it was the boost that I needed. He said that I needed to let go of the whole thing. At that moment I realized how freeing it is to 'let go and let God'. Thank you, Frank, for being there for me and reminding me to just BE.

In this world of change it is crucial that each of us stop the 'monkey mind chatter' and start listening to our divine guidance. There is no better time to clean up our act than spring. We could all consciously do some 'spring cleaning' inside and out. For the record, You are special and I believe in you!

If you have a comment about how to stay focused and clear we would love to hear it. Helping each other is a perfect way to be present in Spirit. You can log on to our NEW BLOG at www.luminati.net/blog to comment. I would be honored to talk to you and hear your take on this subject and others.

In Oneness,

What Do You Do to Facilitate Healing?

Are you interested in hearing what others are doing? If so, visit my new Blog to read what others say or even to log your own comments! We are encouraging you to share your comments about each monthly newsletter in the new Luminati Blog. Use the link below to see this new category. In the meantime, Helen "Ameurta" McNidder-Sinclair, from England, has graciously volunteered to share her experience from the last workshop. She has traveled with Luminati several times on spiritual journeys to Egypt and has also participated in workshops with Menita here in Arizona.

As always, an extremely interesting news letter. The overall theme of love and joy is so apposite at this time have a mantra which I say each morning when out walking Fergie, my dog, in the fields. It is part of my 'Healing the Universe' ritual and encompasses some of Menita's teachings.

'I move in the void beneath the level of public consciousness.

I am pure light, true joy, unconditional love and infinite abundance

And I spread pure light, true joy, infinite love and unconditional abundance.

Wherever I move, whatever I say, do or think.

I reject all negativity immediately and automatically transmute it into positivity by the power of the Light of Spirit and Love

And I command any dark beings to leave my presence immediately and to go into the Light of Spirit and Love.

I am an instrument of unconditional love and infinite abundance for the Human Race, Mother Earth and Creation

I am that I am. Sobeit, sobeit, sobeit.'

Sending you all Love, Light, Healing and many Blessings.

About Menita

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

A Direct Line to OUR SPIRITUAL NETWORK, the Group Composite is Now Available!!!

By Samone Myers

Menita Ishmil, 7th level Composite Being [1] has agreed to post comments and take your questions on the new Luminati Egypt Blog. See www.Luminati.net/blog [2] This is an exciting opportunity to have a direct connection to our Higher Self energies, assisted by the Group Composite.

Who is the Group Composite? In this author's awareness in this moment, I would describe the Group Composite as a collection of Beings with a focus individually (while in the physical) and collectively to pursue enlightenment and the global raising of consciousness. There are disciplines among them (us) who provide specific expertise to ensure the success of elevating to a critical mass to move with Gaia as One into a new level of consciousness and experience of life in the physical.

How can Menita Be of Assistance? In a 'previous' life in Ancient Rome Menita pursued manifestation with intent in order to achieve an ascended state. From this experience and from an ascended state of awareness, techniques are given to us that we can apply directly to our lives in order to manifest desires from the heart as well as to achieve ascension for those who desire it.

I encourage any and all of you to submit questions and to read fellow light-minded people's posts. A huge thank you goes out to Menita and the Group Composite for opening themselves up to this form of communication.

2. The blog has been set up with other categories of discussion to include, but not limited to: nonmainstream information, messages and questions from/to Special Guests on upcoming journeys and sharing experiences had while being in Egypt. So blog 'til your heart's content!

Workshop with Menita

May 22-24, 2009 will be the time for our next gathering, "Opening the Heart". Only 12 masters will be taken as students to learn the techniques of opening the heart. Each one of you will go away from the weekend with tools to move smoothly and comfortably across the bridge to interface with your divine selves. You know who you are!

Message from Mother Mary

Channeled through Gilly Armsby-Ward

Spring Into March

Spring is young, naive, new and hopeful.
Like a newborn baby, it comes in with presence.
Present in its potential for change.
The old, or worn-out does not fit anymore.
A newcomer visits and gives another view.

Having struggled to be here,
Birthing is not an easy business,

There is a beautiful saying, ' And the day came when the risk to remain tight in a bud was more painful than the risk it took to blossom'

What will you do with this new energy?
This spring into bud and blossom.
Will it excite you or be overwhelmingly heavy,
A feeling of delight and hope,
or another round of another year to struggle through.
What meaning do you give Life today.
How conscious of this moment are you?
What do you choose?
Joy, gratitude, peace, abundance.
What do you give away?
Joy, gratitude, peace, abundance.

So this glorious event springs into action,
An Aries moment that fires up your Soul.
Another go at getting it 'right',
Another year's season that gives new hope.
Mother Nature provides continuously, because Life is always full, powerfully turned on to provide continuous well-being.

Tune into this season, and feel the beat,
of new, raw, energy given to feed your ideas,
Dance with the rhythm of the Cosmos,
and know that you are part of this glorious event.
Do not stress by pushing or pulling out of season,
Be new in Spring, Be warmed and encouraged in Summer,
be fed in Autumn, and sleep and hibernate in Winter.

Then your life will flow, and you will master this existence with Joy, laughing all the way to the bank of happiness,
because you have abundance.

Excerpts from the Cosmic Trigger of March 2009

The Return of the Firmament of the Dove [1]

by Metatron through James Tyberonn

"The dawning of this return is a sacred oath fulfilled, a promise kept. Its beginning phase is occurring on the March 20th Equinox in 2009, in which long dormant magnetic codes will be reactivated in specific generation points on the earth. Indeed, this equinox will initiate an incredibly intense energy for 21 days in fervid momentum through the post equinox full moon on April 9th. All of you will discernibly feel the piercing frequency generated. It will be the most powerful and compelling magnetic wave-force released on the planet since the fall of the Firmament in the antediluvian age (an era in which the Earth's magnetic field was exponentially stronger than in current times). This release will be triggered by a download of cosmic crystalline energies received in specific pyramidal transmitter complexes. The purpose of the download is to reseed and activate ancient magnetic codes across the length and breadth of the planet." Among the receiving points of the March 20-April 9, 2009 Cosmic Light Triggers are:

- The Pyramids of Giza (Egypt)
- The Moody Gardens Pyramid Complex of Galveston, Texas
- The Louvre Pyramid in Paris, France
- Chitzen Itza in the Yucatan
- The Summun Pyramid in Salt Lake City
- The Meru Phi Temples of Thailand and Cambodia
- Bourobudur in Java, Indonesia
- The Brihadishwara and Airateswara Temples in India
- The Red Pyramid at Dashur (Egypt)

The primary receiving points of the Cosmic Trigger are Giza and Moody Gardens - both aligned and harmonically attuned tri-pyramidal phi complexes. It is in fact the trinity aspects of combining three pyramids within these two complexes that uniquely equips them to be the primary receiver units. These will in turn distribute the energies to the other complexes through harmonic oscillation. Pyramids are indeed master receivers and transmitters. When they are triangulated, as they were in Atlantis and Rama, they are infinitely more vibrant and capable. They are extremely powerful sacred geometric engines that by their nature and construct penetrate, receive and culminate higher dimensional forces. They are celestial transmitters of the supreme Gestalt that you think of as GOD.

This very description of deity may not be understood by some of you, but nevertheless, you should not try to objectify the energy of ALL THAT IS. God is an omnipotent energy, the sum of all consciousness, and whose whole is far far more than the sum of its parts. Your ancients have always known that 'ALL THAT IS', can be accessed in stepped down format on the Earth plane through specific matrixes of geometric focus. Your 144-Crystalline Grid is one of these and your MerKiVa [2] is another. The two are intricately magnetically interconnected. The grid is the living conscious MerKiVah of the collective Earth, of which mankind is an intimate part.

The most aligned receiver point of the Cosmic Trigger to activate these points in the Americas is Galveston Island, within the Moody Pyramid Complex. This unique trinity pyramid complex is in a direct alignment to Giza, and correlates to magnetic north. [3] It is the combination of the three pyramids in-situ within a synergistic tri-harmonic alignment that allows their greater facility and power. As the Atlanteans and Orion Masters knew, pyramids in specific triangulation are extremely potent when celestially aligned and carefully placed in relation to one another.

Now the three Pyramid complex on Galveston Island was built in a strategic alignment, and for philanthropical and frequencial purpose. Approximately 5 miles from the area of Galveston Island, an ancient ceremonial Pyramid complex existed in a coastal region, now submerged and covered in the sedimentary silt and slime of the ages below Gulf waters. The Crystal Skull called Max was among the 13 skulls located within it. The Moody Gardens Pyramids have taken on the multidimensional energies of the submerged Atlantean complex and are now fully formatted to play a major role in the Cosmic Trigger.

The Moody Garden Pyramids are axially attuned to the energies of the Giza complex. We tell you that Pyramidal Temples exist in timelessness and co exists in parallel dimension within the timeless void.

This is why the Pyramids at Giza can never be accurately aged because once constructed they surmount linear time and the nature of their energetic geometries supra-impose in parallel and emit etheric doubles in multi-dimensional timelessness. The paradox is that once built, they always existed. It is in fact this aspect and locale that inspired the philanthropical reconstruction of pyramids in this precise location for the Restitution of the Sanctuary and Sanctity of the Dove.

Participation in the March Cosmic Trigger:

Indeed this is a Cosmic Trigger in March and April is monumental event for the family of man, and it is a family of which we speak, one of which you are all a part. You can participate in this event, if you are so compelled, (and many of you are) by meditative visualization of all humanity connected in love. We offer this exercise to take part in the trigger:

Form the MerKaBic star tetrahedron, the 8-pointed star around you, and begin toning 'OHM.' Practice the infinity breath and convert the 8-pointed star to a 12-pointed star of the MerKiVa. If you are in Western Hemisphere, focus on and visualize the Moody Gardens Pyramid complex in Texas. If you are in the Eastern Hemisphere, direct your energy process to the Tri-Pyramids of Giza. Picture the Blue Pyramid in Galveston and the Great Pyramid in Giza as simultaneously receiving the initial spiral of energy. Then visualize all 3 pyramids in each complex circulating the energies, and see the Giza complex harmonically connected in a golden qaxialtonal line to the Moody Garden Pyramids complex and vice-versa.

Once connected visualize these two connecting to every pyramidal complex aforementioned across the globe. See all receiving the golden spiraling energy download and glowing in great intense light, covering the planet. Then place the Earth (& Grid) in an enormous Octahedron, as you see in your minds eye the Cosmic Trigger of Celestial Crystalline Light flow through the Pyramidal Phi Complexes and Octahedronal power points. Feel the upsurge flow of the awakening coded electro-magnetics of the Earth rise through your own physical forms and chakric systems. Absorb the energies and beam them to all around you.

Next, focus on the 14 sacred code-magnetic springs fountaining energy into the heavens. Visualize the upward flow of these energies to the 144-Grid encapsulating the Earth. Place a golden Arch, a glowing Elliptical Band forming around the planet and grid. See it as gold in color, then tone 'Ohm' amid a sense of joy and love. As you tone, visualize the Platinum Ray of the Crystalline Field flowing the soft nurturing energy of the Divine Feminine through the Golden Arc and swirling around it to form the crystalline band.

Practice this as often as you can during the 21 Days of the Dove. In closing we ask you to focus on joy, and be the change you desire. And we tell you in humor and light that while these Golden Arches are not for fast-food, billions will be served!

I am Metatron, and I share with you these Truths.... And so it is."

2. We assume 'MerKiVah' is a different spelling for 'Merkaba.' 'Merkaba', as we noted for the 999 Event is derived from Ancient Egyptian words. Mer = Light or Pyramid, Ka = Spirt, and Ba= Body.
3. The image of the map of world's longitude and latitude shows the two primary tri-pyramidal complexes (Giza and offshore from Galveston) are both located at 30° 0' 30" Latitude.

Two Statues of Ancient Pharaoh Found

Associated Press, March. 5, 2009

A team of Egyptian and European archaeologists has discovered two large statues of an ancient pharaoh who ruled Egypt some 3,400 years ago. The two statues of Amenhotep III were found while the excavation team was clearing out a temple dedicated to him on the west bank of the Nile in the southern city of Luxor. One statue is made of black granite and shows Amenhotep wearing a traditional pharaonic head cover, while the second one depicts him in the shape of sphinx.

Amenhotep was the ninth pharaoh of the 18th dynasty, in what is known as the New Kingdom. He ruled for around 40 years during the 14th century B.C. He was the father of pharaoh Akhenaten who tried to make ancient Egyptians worship a single god, the sun god Ra, making him one of the first known proponents of monotheism. 'Green Magic' Protected Egyptian Child Mummies,

Jennifer Viegas, Discovery News, Feb. 5, 2009

A rare mummified child from the early period of Egyptian history was discovered buried with a bright green amulet stone once believed to hold magical powers, according to a new study. The finds help to explain why hieroglyphics and historical texts record that Egyptian children wore green eye makeup. It also adds to the growing body of evidence that ancient Egyptians thought color itself held sacred energy that could help or hurt individuals. Lead author, Raffaella Bianucci explained that the first Egyptian colored amulets occurred as early as the pre-dynastic Badarian period, from 4500 to 3800 B.C. The recently analyzed child mummy, containing the remains of a 15- to 18-month-old toddler, dates to 4,700 years ago.

"In ancient Egypt, color was an integral part of the substance and being of everything in life," she said, explaining that green -- the color of new vegetation and growing crops, including the treasured papyrus plant -- was linked to health and "flourishing." Chapter 30 of the Book of the Dead, an ancient Egyptian funerary text, instructs that a scarab beetle amulet be made of green minerals and placed at the heart of mummies. Ancient Mummy Warehouse Found Deep Beneath Egypt

Maggie Michael in Cairo, Associated Press, February 9, 2009

A storehouse of 30 Egyptian mummies has been unearthed inside a 2,600-year-old tomb, in a new round of excavations at the vast necropolis of Saqqara outside Cairo, archaeologists announced today. The tomb was discovered at the bottom of a 36-foot-deep (11-meter-deep) shaft. Eight of the mummies were in stone coffins, or sarcophagi. The rest had been placed in niches along the wall. The ancient warehouse dates back to 640 B.C. and the 26th dynasty, which was Egypt's last independent kingdom before it was overthrown by a succession of foreign conquerors, beginning with the Persians. Most of the mummies are poorly preserved, and archaeologists have yet to determine their identities or why so many are in a single room. For the full story, click here.

Travel Tip

Airfares in spite of the economic situation have remained the same or in some cases, decreased. This is especially true with airfares overseas. There are several ways to take advantage of lower airfares. First, and foremost, book early! If you are traveling out of the country, it is a good idea to make your reservations at least 30-60 days in advance. If traveling on a tour, such as with Luminati to Egypt, it is wise to "go with the group" and reserve your space using the discounted airfare on Egypt Air out of NYC. The discounts are passed on to you, which include the internal airfares in Egypt. This can be as much as a $300 savings. Then, if you choose to fly Egypt Air out of JFK, you have several options on getting to NY. Use mileage or select an airline with low airfares like Southwest, and/or fly in and out of a surrounding airport. Many times flying into Newark or Laguardia is less than JFK. To find the lowest airfares, use services such as Expedia or Cheap Tickets. And don't forget to apply AAA or AARP discounts. Finally, you can search for airfares on carriers such as American or United from LA to London and London to Cairo or Chicago to Frankfort and Frankfort to Cairo. Often the two combined are lower than straight through. Then, call the airline and let them know what you discovered and ask that they give you the lower airfare for the straight through flight. Typically, the airlines are more than happy to accommodate you.
